I'm only 8 days into 100 Days To Offload and I've already missed two. The biggest reason is that this is finals week and all my time right now is taken up by studying for exams. As I said on the Fediverse, I have been exhausted the past little while and I'm not getting nearly as much sleep as I really need. I've enjoyed it so far but I'm going to take a break until finals are over; I'll still be coming up with post ideas, however, I just won't actually write or publish them.
